Message from the Headteacher

It has been a rather busy start to the year at Edward Pauling Primary School. I have spent time meeting with the teaching team, to assess where children are and decide the next steps, so children continue moving on with their learning. The Deputy Headteachers and I have scanned some of the English and Maths books, in order to streamline the expectations and achieve consistency across the school in relation to marking and feedback.

I am sure you have noticed that the school website has a new look and the office team are busy populating this as we speak. The Curriculum Maps for Spring Term have been uploaded and these will give our parents and carers a clear picture of the topics that the children will be covering. Over the next few weeks, the Curriculum Intent and Long Term Plans will also be available on the website, and these are an overview of the provision at Edward Pauling. When you get a moment, please visit the Recommended Books page on the website, here we have published a list of high quality books for children to read.

The Home Learning expectations are also being shared with you , these will be in the form of a set of tasks assigned to students by their teachers and need to be completed at home. Home learning may include reading, a writing or typing project, mathematical exercises to be completed, information to be reviewed, or other skills to be practiced. Pupils should be able to work on these tasks independently, and on some occasions may need slight guidance from you. Please may I request you to support and encourage your child to complete these tasks as they will help to embed learning.

Finally, I look forward to seeing our Y1 and Y2 parents at the training for the phonics screening check next Friday.

Warm Regards

Iman Basu Roy

Dear Parents/Carers,
We're excited to invite you to send in photos of your children reading their favourite books in unique and interesting places! Whether it's in a cosy nook, outside in nature, or somewhere unexpected, we want to see how creative your child can get!

The most unique and creative photos will be displayed in school for everyone to enjoy!

Please send in your photos by 7th of February to homework@edwardpauling.hounslow.sch.uk

We can't wait to see where your child's love of reading takes them!

On Friday 14th February, pupils are invited to come to school in their pyjamas for 'Pyjamarama' to raise money for Children with Cancer UK. To support this worthy cause are asking for pupils to bring in a donation of £1 to go towards the charity.
